WHEN?

April 4 to 8, 1921

WHERE?

St. Joseph, Missouri

WHAT?

Music Supervisors' National Conference

WHO?

All progressive music supervisors in America

WHY?

School music is developing more rapidly than ever before in its history. These meetings are the nucleus of the best advanced thought on the subject. No supervisor can afford to miss the inspiration and information to be gained.

Last year's epoch-marking Conference in Philadelphia will never be forgotten, but from the impetus gained there the St. Joseph meeting should be still bigger and better!

The Victor is proud to be an integral factor in the newly-awakened music consciousness of the country. We shall be there to greet all of our old friends and to meet many new ones.

This is a cordial invitation for you to visit PARLOR C, MEZZANINE FLOOR, HOTEL ROBIDOUX. Our representatives will welcome you, show you the latest phases of practical teaching with the Victrola, and give you suggestions for putting into practice the many splendid things you will learn at the Conference.

School use

This is the instrument that is used in thousands of schools. Many years' experience has proved it is the instrument best adapted to all-round school use.

When the Victrola is not in use, the horn can be placed under the instrument safe and secure from danger, and the cabinet can be locked to protect it from dust and promiscuous use by irresponsible people.

The End of Music Hours that "Loaf Along"

The more difficult the lesson, the more the teacher appreciates the Miessner. As she takes her place at the keys, attention becomes a certainty. And music instruction comes into its own!

No longer is the music hour a period which instructor and pupils alike wish were over. With a Miessner you face every child in the room. Personality—your power to build and hold interest—inspires pupils to learn and compels them to remember.

Are you striving for the impossible—genuine efficiency in music instruction with an instrument which permits you to see only part of the class during the lesson? Then think of your greater teaching possibilities with this smaller piano—

The MIESSNER Piano

"The Little Piano with the Big Tone"

The music hour seems all too short—the songs are filled with spirit when a Miessner is used. The children follow your lead—catch your enthusiasm!

That is why, every day, some school system is adopting this one practical piano for schoolroom use. And more than that, schools which have already found the Miessner the solution of the music problems are re-ordering in quantities as high as 50 at a time. Forceful testimony on the merits of this marvelous instrument!

Piano accompaniment for every room is also possible when a Miessner is used. Two boys can easily move it from room to room; two men can carry it from floor to floor.
